

RECRUITMENT CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR DOCTORAL STUDIES AT THE INSTITUTE OF BIOCYBERNETICS AND BIOMEDICAL ENGINEERING,
POLISH ACADEMY OF SCIENCE (IBBE PAS)

- 1) A person can apply for doctoral studies at IBBE PAS if he or she:
 - a. has a master's degree or is a beneficiary of the Diamond Grant program and fulfills the recruitment requirements established by the Science Committee of the Institute,
 - b. has gained the approval of the topic's supervisor,
 - c. is a beneficiary of the "Diamond grant" program.

- 2) Recruitment requirements:
 - a. Master's degree or a scholarship from the Diamond Grant program.
 - b. Suitable language skills in English.
 - c. Required documents:
 - application for doctoral studies,
 - diploma certificate,
 - curriculum vitae,
 - references from the supervisor of the master's thesis or from place of work,
 - approval of the PhD's supervisor,
 - topic of the PhD thesis accepted by the supervisor.

- 3) Recruitment procedure
 - a. Available topics of PhD theses and the application deadline are to be publicly announced on the Institute's website and within its facility at least 3 months before the start of the semester.
 - b. Candidates will undergo an interview by the Recruitment Committee in the presence of the PhD topic's supervisor. The interview is to be held at least 2 weeks before the start of the semester.
 - c. Final decision concerning the admission of the candidate is made by the Head Director of the Institute on the request of the Recruitment Committee.

Document approved by the Science Committee on 25th of February 2014

Head of the Science Committee

Prof. Krzysztof Kędzior

Head Director of IBBE PAS

Prof. Marek Darowski